

Jewish Family Service of Metrowest Family Assistance Network

The JFS Family Assistance Network provides confidential and respectful assistance to individuals and families in Metrowest to help them meet the short-term challenges resulting from urgent financial difficulties. Our goal is to help households remain independent and financially self-sufficient through a comprehensive array of coordinated services. Cash assistance will be available on an income eligibility basis.

Case Management Services

- Intake and assessment of assistance needs
- Service plan development and follow-up
- Elder care services
- Connecting families to service networks

Financial Assistance

Cash assistance paid directly to vendors for:

- Fuel and heating assistance
- Utilities/household items
- Medical needs/health care/prescriptions
- Food/nutritional supplements
- Transportation

Legal Assistance referrals through Metrowest Legal Aide
Emergency food assistance/utilization of the Lucy and Joe Food Pantry
Information & Referral

Call the JFS Family Assistance Network.

508-875-3100 x 27

mwinter@jfsmw.org

Ask for Myrna.

We are here to help you.

